Catty's Cupcakes

Rohini Chintha, Hyderabad

Catty caterpillar loved cupcakes. In fact, he wanted to eat cupcakes only and nothing else. Gradually he became so fatty that he could not go outside in search of cupcakes. But he was always so hungry that he had to satisfy with eating leaves.

But Catty's dream of getting a cupcake made him disappointed. His friends, Sittu sparrow and Bashi butterfly felt sorry for him. They wanted to make him happy again. They gave him balloons, party hats, pencils and pictures, but Catty was still unhappy. They painted his face pink, but he was still unhappy.

Days passed and Catty became more and more sad. He did not play or smile. He did not even eat! Sittu and Bashi became worried. They tried to find a cupcake for him. But no matter how hard they tried, they could not find one. They tried to bake one, but they did not know how to. They too became unhappy.

While they were all feeling sad, down came Mittu mongoose. He saw the gloomy faces of all his friends and was very surprised. He asked them what the matter was. Sittu and Bashi sighed and told him about Catty's craving for cupcakes.

Mittu looked up at Catty in disbelief. "Why didn't you ask Bunny bear to bake you some? She lives right beside your house, doesn't she?" he asked.

"Yes! She does! Why didn't I ask? Silly me!" He smiled shyly and crawled off. He looked happy again.

Sittu and Bashi too felt very silly. Imagine spending days on end feeling unhappy, when they could have solved the problem in no time!

"Thanks Mittu," they shouted, flying off behind Catty. They too looked happy!

Mittu smiled to himself. "Oh, What a silly bunch!" he thought, as he went in search of fruits.

That evening, when Mittu was going home, he saw Catty, Sittu and Bashi feasting on cupcakes. They called Mittu to join them and they all had lovely cupcakes for dinner!

Up in the sky a beautiful star,
Twinkling a very beautiful star.

You please come down
And play with me please....

You are a beautiful star,
You are a beautiful star.

The star gives me a gift,
That is a big Teddy Bear.

Teddy Bear laughs at me,
And the Teddy Bear plays with me.

The beautiful star looks down,
And is laughing in the sky.

Up in the sky a beautiful star,
Up in the sky a beautiful star.
